

Indiana has a very effective Telephone Privacy Law. Since Indiana implemented it's law I have received only two (2) unauthorized calls, both of which were from out of state. The FCC should NOT implement any proposal that would lessen the effectiveness of Indiana's Law. Thank You, Larry A. Egnew